COMMUNITY SPACE PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

Nursing Station:

Carlos is our On-Site Registered Nurse provides meaningful and inclusive health services for individuals experiencing homelessness. Services including wound care, 1-on-1 health assessments, education, urgent care, referrals and more. Dedicated to respond to overdoses and other medical emergencies.

Housing Workshop

Weekly housing workshop in support service for those needing assistance to becoming permanently housed. Participants can learn about affordable housing and housing resources, get assistance searching online for available housing options, and see weekly affordable housing listings.

Case Managers

Team of Case Managers providing programs and services including intake, in-reach, case management, outreach, and service navigation support.

Mental Health Supports

The Mental Health Support Worker, Myles works with individuals who have mental health concerns, and often concurrent addictions issues, who do not have appropriate supports to address daily living goals. Staff members facilitate connections with internal and external programs and resources, such as doctors, counselors, and other mental health professionals. We also provide individuals with outreach support, empowering our community members to address their ongoing needs. Myles will be in the Community Space Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays for in reach 9 AM - 12 PM.

FASS (Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Services) Information:

The FASD navigator, Deb O, will be in the Community Space on Mondays and Tuesdays. They provide in-person and/or phone-based referrals, education and other short-term solutions to individuals/families affected by FASD.

Tax Clinic

Hosted by the Bissell Centre partnered with e4c, collaborates with the CRA to offer free tax preparation services to those with access barriers. Our volunteers are qualified to prepare income tax and benefit returns for eligible individuals.

Financial Literacy Workshops

Due to room capacity, there is a maximum 6 people per workshop. Every participant will receive a $5 gift card for attending. If you have any questions or would like to sign up, please connect with Community Space staff and we will connect you with Financial Empowerment Coordinator, Anst.

Digital Basics

A program that offers adults an opportunity to learn basic digital and computer skills and/or review previously learned skills in a safe and supported environment. For inquiries, contact Shaun at shaunhaiste@gmail.com.

Sunday Church Service

Sunday Church service and brunch provided by Inner City Pastoral Ministry and Church of Emmanuel. All are welcome.

Colour To Calm

A program lead by Heidi M that offers a space to colour sheets, adult level Connect the Dots and other crafty activities. Snacks are provided.

Camelot Games

A Chess Club lead by John H for Chess players of any level. You can also play other games and watch a movie. Snacks are provided.

Sing Along with Evan

Are you interested in singing? Join Evan for a sing along every Saturdays.

Cultural Program

Cultural programs and supports will be available every day facilitated by Robert P.

Community Wellness Connection
Program (Boyle Street Community Services)

This month Akshya (BSCS) and Sarah D (Bissell Centre) will talk about benefits of essential oils and herbal teas.

Community Engagement Taskforce Monthly Meeting

The Community Engagement Taskforce is designed to provide a space for community members and staff to come together to discuss and plan out thoughts and ideas that will assist Bissell Centre into truly becoming a hub that is led by the community we serve. Recognizing that the community members we serve are the best individuals to inform decisions regarding needed services and programs within Bissell Centre. Incentives will be given for participants. If interested, please let Sarah D know.
